QUILTS

Description

Quilts serve many purposes. They keep us warm and cover beds, but can also be pieces of art. Quilts may have special meaning in the fabric or patterns they use or in the stories that they tell. This resource collection highlights several quilts in the Nobles County Historical Society Collection. It connects these quilts to related objects in the NCHS collection and offers related lesson materials, videos, and other resources to enrich student learning.

Featured NCHS Quilts

- 2015.045.0042.PC (a) (b) (c) (d) (e) (f) - Handmade patchwork tied quilt made by Red Cross ladies in 1941 - 1942 as a fund raiser. This quilt was begun in April 1942 and each Red Cross branch in the county contributed a block. Worthington quilters did the actual assembling and quilting. For each name on the quilt, 10 cents was donated to the Red Cross. The quilt netted $237.57 for the Red Cross Treasury.

GRADES K-5

Lesson Plans

Identifying Geometric Patterns in Quilts - International Quilt Museum at the University of Nebraska Lincoln

This K-3 lesson helps students to recognize shapes and patterns through quilts. Students will analyze examples of different quilts to identify different shapes, colors, and patterns. They then have the opportunity to create their own patterns. Lesson materials include images, instructions, and an assessment with a rubric.

Faith Ringgold and Story Quilts - Mattatuck Museum

This lesson plan from the Mattatuck Museum asks students grades 1-4 to consider how narrative artworks are created through the example of Faith Ringgold. Ringgold's story quilts combined text and imagery to tell a story, oftentimes one connected to her native Harlem.

Village Story Blanket- Minneapolis Institute of Art

This lesson plan helps students in grades 3-6 to analyze a Hmong story blanket. Students will then design their own story blankets around scenes from their daily lives.

Lesson Activities

Log Cabin Coloring Block - International Quilt Museum at the University of Nebraska Lincoln

This handout gives students the opportunity to color their own log cabin quilt block. Once all students have colored a block, teachers could have students cut them out and combine them to make a class quilt.

Read a Book about Quilts

Collaborate with your school librarian to find an age-appropriate book on quilts to read as a class.

Videos

Finding Minnesota: Houston County Barn Quilt Tours - WCCO - CBS Minnesota

This 3-minute video takes a closer look at barn quilts in Houston County. Barn quilts are painted on wood and show a single square of a quilt. More than 60 barns in the county have a barn quilt on them.

K-12 MUSEUM RESOURCES

National Quilt Museum - Google Arts & Culture

Google Arts & Culture hosts more than 200 images of quilts in the collection of the National Quilt Museum. These quilts bear a wide variety of designs, including patterns, plants, animals, scenes, and people.

I Go To Prepare A Place For You - Bisa Butler Quilt of Harriet Tubman - Smithsonian NMAAHC

This Bisa Butler quilt depicts Harriet Tubman. The object caption describes the symbolism behind the imagery and colors used in the artwork.

GRADES 6-12

Lesson Activities

Word Search: Find the Quilt Blocks - International Quilt Museum at the University of Nebraska Lincoln

This word search challenges students to locate words related to different types of quilt block patterns, such as the Log Cabin, Sunflower, and Pinwheel patterns. The handout features pictures of these different patterns for reference.

Articles and Museum Programs

Sewing Stories - Scholastic Art

This article from the December 2021 edition of Scholastic Art asks "How do Bisa Butler's materials and process help her share ideas?" The article details how Butler became interested in quilting and details her artistic process. The article's page includes additional resources, including a lesson plan, videos, vocabulary, and sketchbook starters.

From These Hands: Fiber Art and Poetry by Gwen Westerman - Hillstrom Museum of Art, Gustavus Adolphus College

This guide accompanied a 2021 exhibition of Dakota artist Gwen Westerman's art and poetry at Gustavus Adolphus College. The guide contains several pictures of Westerman's quilts, which are accompanied by descriptions and some of her poetry.

Videos

Artist Bisa Butler on her Process and Using Materials with Meaning - Scholastic

Artist Bisa Butler describes how she makes portrait quilts in this 6-minute video from Scholastic. She explains how she transforms a photograph into a quilt by selecting different colors to represent different emotions.

Native Report - Gwen Westerman - PBS North

In this 7-minute video, Gwen Westerman describes her artistic process. Westerman describes the evolution of depictions of stars in Dakota art over time. She describes the inspiration behind and construction of different quilts she has made.
